BRIEF HISTORY OF THE HOLY CROSS SISTERS IN ZAMBIA

The Holy Cross Sisters first came to the Catholic Diocese of Livingstone, Zambia, then Northern Rhodesia, in 1936.

Over the years, they have been involved in a variety of ministries as they tried to respond to the “needs of the time”. Education, especially of the “Girl Child”, remains a priority of the Sisters.

Currently, the sisters are the Managing Agency of Holy Cross Girls' Secondary School in Mongu. Other sisters serve in various ministries in different parts of Zambia.

This year, with the support of partners both local and over-seas, an eight Classroom school is almost complete in Lusaka; to be opened in January, 2008

PROPRIETOR

The Holy Cross Sisters are the Proprietor of the School and are responsible for the daily administration.
